

CAPCE CEH Information Collection Sheet

Instructions for Students:

Continuing Education Hours (CEH) for EMS professionals are available from EMS Safety Services, Inc., an accredited organization of the Commission on Accreditation of Pre-Hospital Continuing Education (CAPCE, formerly CECBEMS). Please provide EMS Safety Services, Inc. all requested information to ensure proper reporting and receipt.

Instructions for Instructors:

In order for EMS Safety Services to issue CEH, Instructors must provide all class information prior to review. The complete list can be found on our website at www.emssafety.com. Once all documents have been submitted, they will be reviewed. Upon approval, certificates will be issued for each student and uploaded to the instructor's portal. EMS Safety will notify you when certificates become available. It is the instructor's responsibility to provide each student with their CEH certificate.
